

Cambridge Colloquium in Anglo-Saxon, Norse and Celtic

27 February 2010

PROGRAM

9:30-10:00 – Registration

10:00-11:00 – Keynote speaker: Dr. Carolyne Larrington, Supernumerary Fellow, St. John's College, Oxford: Family Drama in the Heroic Poetry of the Edda

11:00-11:30 – Tea Break

11:30-1:00 – Session 1

1) Stephanie Fishwick, Linacre College, Oxford: Unnatural Affections: The Unusual Addition to the Family in the Íslendingasögur

2) Ronni Phillips, St. John's College, Cambridge: Exile, Family and the Medieval Irish Exilic Vocabulary

3) Joanne Shortt Butler, B.A., University of Cambridge: "Megi faðir sinn ráða því, en helzt vili hann þó heima sitja": Snorri Goði, His Sons, and the Weight of Expectation

1:00-2:00 – Lunch

2:00-3:30 – Session 2

1) Ed Carlsson Browne, M.A., University College London: Roger of Howden and the Unknown Royalty of Twelfth-Century Norway

2) Erin Goeres, Lincoln College, Oxford: Constructing Kin(g)ship: Eyvindr Skáldaspillir as Spokesman for the Earls of Hlaðir

3) Eric Denton, Trinity College, Cambridge: Caring for Kith and Kin in Wulfstan Cantor's Narratio Metrica de Sancto Swithuno

3:30-4:00 – Tea Break

4:00-5:30 – Session 3

1) David Baker, Lady Margaret Hall, Oxford: The End of the Affair? The Topos of the Marriage of Óðinn and Jörð in Skaldic Verse Before and After the Conversion

2) Helen F. Leslie, University of Bergen: Continuum of Tradition and the Men of Hrafnista

3) Julie Mumby, King's College London: Fathers or Uncles? A Problem in the Old English Tract Known as Wergeld

7:00 – Dinner