

THE 21ST CAMBRIDGE COLLOQUIUM IN ANGLO-SAXON, NORSE AND CELTIC

---

DISORDER AND DISHONESTY

---

8th February 2020

Faculty of English, 9 West Road, Cambridge, CB3 9DP

PROGRAMME

9.15-9.40      Registration

9.40-9.45      Opening Remarks

9.45-11.15    Session One

Flannery McIntyre (University of Cambridge)

Dishonest Narratives: Material Evidence for Slavery in 5th – 8th c. England

Emmet Taylor (University College Cork)

Conall Cernach and Kinslaying in a Narrative Context

Sven Rossel (University of Cambridge)

Reconstructing Manuscripts, Assembling Scriptoria: A Puzzle of Danish Manuscript Fragments and their Scribes in 12th century Lund

11.15-11.45    Tea

11.45-13.15    Session Two

Alisa Valpola-Walker (University of Cambridge)

Testing the Boundaries of History: Göngu-Hrólfs saga in AM 589f 4to

Courtney Selvage (Ulster University)

“I am a lion destroying cattle, I am a bear for courage”: An Examination of the 16th century Betha Naile

Ashley Castelino (University of Cambridge)

The Sámi in Heimskringla: Disorderly Giants or Óðinnic Family?

13.15-14.15    Lunch

14.15-15.15    Keynote Address

Dr Francis Leneghan (University of Oxford)

TBA

15.15-15.45 Tea

15.45-17.15 Session Three

Anouk Nuijten (University of Cambridge)
Subverted Heroism in Aided Cheit maic Mágach

Markus Mindrebo (Royal Holloway, University of London)
'Dá brá hon knífi': Female assassins in Snorri's Heimskringla

Kayla Kemhadjian (University of Leeds)
Such Great Heights: Discord in the Written Record of Self-killings in Late
10th Century England

Delegates are invited to join us in the Faculty of English for a wine reception after the last session.

For those attending, the conference dinner will be hosted at Wolfson College at 7pm. We will be leaving from the Faculty of English at 18:35.